

Open Questions in Compassion Research
The Love Consortium Community Event
March 26, 2021
Virtual Event

Welcome: TLC Director Sara Algoe

Opening talk: "Compassionate Love in the Family" by Beverley Fehr (University of Winnipeg)

Flash talk session:

Alison Jane Martingano, University of Wisconsin - Green Bay, "The Limited Benefits of Using Virtual Reality to Promote Empathy and Charitable Giving" (co-authors: Sara Konrath, Evan Henritze, and Adam Brown)

Fred Duong, University of Toronto, "Compassion and Empathic Distress on Helping" (co-author: David DeSteno)

Solomiya Draga, University of Toronto, "Limits of Compassion: Inducing 'Compassion Fatigue' within a Lab Setting" (co-author: Jennifer Stellar)

Sara Etz Mendonca, Wake Forest University, "Promoting Compassion and Intellectual Humility: An Online Character Change Intervention" (co-authors: Elise D. Murray and Eranda Jayawickreme)

Tao Jiang, Ohio State University, "Compassionate Goals as An Alternate Route to Self-Disclosure" (co-authors: Amy Canevello, Diane M. Quinn, Katherine Lewis, Alexandra E. Black, and Jennifer Crocker)

Q+A with speakers